It is mentioned in the mission's task that the same message is hidden in two different pieces of music, "New hero, nowhere" and "New hero, nowhere (Reprise)". Closer inspection of the two pieces shows that they have a common bassline: C - D - A - C

4

When the rules of solmisation are applied to these notes it leads to the syllables do, re, la, do.

5

The secret message names the place where agent 002 ½ is currently located. This tells us that what we are looking for is a name of a location that can be formed by rearranging the letters d o r e l a d o.
